

Magdalena Schindler

UX Designer with a background in graphic design and project management.

I aim to improve the digital world from the user's point of view by using my solution-oriented approach and my user-centered mindset. My superpower is my empathy, which allows me to identify deep-seated reasons behind objections.

Professional Experience

Project Coordinator Teacher Education Jul 2018 - Dec 2022
University of Graz - Center for teacher education, Graz/Austria

In order to present the complexity of teacher education in a simplified way, I have built and continuously updated online and print information in collaboration with the design and development team. Relevant information became more quickly accessible to stakeholders.

Workshop facilitator Jan 2018 - Jul 2018

Steirische Volkswirtschaftliche Gesellschaft, Styria/Austria

The workshops took place in schools as well as in adult education, where the same content was taken up by very different target groups. I was able to keep my audience engaged by teaching in a target group-oriented way, responding to individual needs and adapting the content to the situation. In this way, I ensured the best transfer of knowledge.

Customer service and cash desk July 2017 - June 2018

Lichtspieltheater BetriebsGmbH - Geidorf Kunst kino, Graz/Austria

Responsible for cashiering, customer service, and handling inquiries prior to the start of performances.

Customer service and graphics design May 2015 - February 2017
University of Graz - Campus advertising, Graz/Austria

Supervised external companies in planning promotion booths on the university campus. Assisted with issues during promotions to ensure smooth operations.

Corporate Communications May 2013 - Dec. 2014

EMS Handelsmarketing, Graz and Fürstenfeld/Austria

Responsible for the rebranding of a sub-brand and the relaunch of the entire corporate design. Conception and implementation of web presences and trade fair booths for a uniform perception of the umbrella brand and its sub-products. Successful establishment of seminar and event organization as additional communication channels.
